THIS IS CAMERON, TEXAS?

The first snow of recent years fell in Cameron and most of North and Central Texas, leaving these unusual scenes. Upper left, students leave Yoe High School Monday morning after classes were dismissed. Schools in Cameron, Buckholts, Maysfield, Marak and Branchville reopened Tuesday. At right, trees in Wilson - Ledbetter Park bear an unaccustomed glitter. And lower right, John Allen Moseley, 2, points to his first snowman and probably his last for a long time. Young John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Moseley, of 211 E. 16th St. Staffotos

One Day 'Winter Wonderland' Light Snow Falls, Melts

Schools Reopen Tuesday A. M.

Only 11 of an inch of snow fell Monday in Cameron and vicinity, but it changed Milam into a unique Texas winter wonderland for a day.

Primary result was the closing of schools Monday morning in Cameron, Maysfield, Buckholts, Marak and Branchville. They reopened Tuesday morning.

The snow melted later Monday, leaving icy traces Tuesday that finally disappeared in the sun shining at mid-week.

Staffographer James Hollas documented some of the unusual scenes in the accompanying pictures.

No accidents due to the ice and snow were reported to the local police or to the local Highway Patrol.

Service of the utilities was normal and was not interrupted by the light snow.

ALCOA REHIRES

66 TO REOPEN

FIFTH POTLINE

Sixty-six employees are being hired at the Alcoa Rockdale Works this week to begin operation of the plant's fifth potline.

It would restore to the Alcoa annual payroll about $350,000 and bring total Alcoa plant employment to more than 1,000.

Industrial Generating, power company supplying Alcoa its electricity from the lignite, is laying off 25 men effective March 1.

The IGC cutback is due to using the massive digging equipment in shallower beds of lignite, reducing the amount of work involved in removing overburden earth.

Full production of the fifth potline is expected in about two weeks. The Herald was informed.

It will restore Alcoa's operation to the employment and production status of mid-1962. One potline will remain inactive.

Book Of The Month:

'Not Without Honor'

NOT WITHOUT HONOR by Ben H. Procter. Austin: University of Texas Press. 361 pps. $6.00.

Texas' fretful years of moving from a Republic through statehood into the Confederacy and back again reverberate through this first biography of John H. Reagan (1818-1905), 19th century Texas statesman and Confederate postmaster-general.

Dr. Procter, an associate professor of history at Texas Christian University, develops the tenacious character and incisive integrity of Reagan, whose imprint on 60 years of Texas history leads the reader to expect him several times a governor of this state.

His stamp fell on several men who sat in the governor's mansion. His efforts went into almost selfless service in the Texas House, the U. S. Congress and Senate.

Jefferson Davis' confederate cabinet and on Texas' Railroad Commission.

The fiery-eyed Reagan excepted himself from gubernatorial nomination during the 1880's to stay in Congress. His purpose: to hammer out the first interstate Commerce legislation limiting rate excesses of the Eastern railroads.

He later resigned his highest national attainment, a seat in the U. S. Senate, to accept Texas Governor Jim Hogg's proffered chairmanship of the first Texas railroad Commission.

NOT WITHOUT HONOR finds this man somewhat of Lincoln's stature without drawing the comparison. A Tennessean of humble origin, Reagan at 21 came to East Texas, seeking opportunity that took him as a self-taught surveyor into Indian Country. He later became tutor for the children of an East Texas planter and read widely, defining his interest in law.

Reagan was later a country lawyer at Buffalo, and like Lincoln, his Northern contemporary, gained prominence in an early murder trial.

He was elevated by appointment to a district judgeship and was later elected to the Texas House, his first term ending in defeat in a controversy between settlers and a land company. He was

Baskin Will In

District Case

A 12-man Milam District jury Wednesday held that A. H. Baskin had testamentary capacity and was not under undue influence when he made his will, being contested this week.

The civil case of A. H. Baskin, et al vs. Anna Lou Wendt, et al, was heard for two and half days with District Judge James Evetts, of Belton, presiding.

Handed two charges, the jury found that Baskin had "testamentary capacity" at the time he wrote the will, May 26, 1952. He died several years later.

And the jury found that the will "was not procured under undue influence on the part of the defendant", Anna Lou Wendt.

The jury returned their verdicts about 12:30 p. m. Wednesday. They had heard 19 witnesses, both for the plaintiffs and defendants in the civil case.

Jurors were: Chester Griffin, C. L. Hines, Forrest Sapp (foreman), M. L. Bannister, Lester Byrd, Melvin Cast, Erskine McDermott, Rodney A. Barker, Alvin Heff, Edwin Falke, Joe Humplik and Robert L. Matthews, Jr.

New Books Added

To City Library;

Demand Growing

Four books have been added to the Cameron Library, all on famous Texans and the Lone Star State.

Mrs. W. O. Triggs, Library book chairman, reports the following books now available:

"Not Without Honor," by Ben H. Procter, "Famous Texans," by J. A. Rickard, "Sam Henderson, Texas Ranger," by Norton McGriffin, and "Texas, the Land of the Tejas," by Siddle Joe Johnson.

The biography of John H. Reagan, Texas statesman and Confederate postmaster-general, was contributed by Mrs. Giles Avriett. "Not Without Honor" is reviewed in this edition of the Herald.

And Mrs. Triggs reports that a number of children's books have also been added to the Library.

She noted that a number of Cameron area students attending Temple Junior College are using the Library's books, purchased at their request, as well as new reference books.

No One Injured

In City Accident

No one was injured in a minor accident involving vehicles driven by John Roberts and Mrs. Leona White, both of Cameron, about 8:10 a. m. Wednesday according to Bill Richter, investigating officer.

Damage to the Roberts car was about $375 and the damage to Mrs. White's car was about $300.

Richter said Roberts was turning left off East 12th when the collision occurred.

MINOR CHANGES

AFFECT CO. C

IN NEW PROGRAM

The new reorganization of the National Guard will not change the status of the local unit except in a few spots, according to SFC Joe L. Vybral, administrative technician.

Changes in the local unit will be in Company C headquarters platoon. The major change will be introduction of a radar set into the unit. This will add two radar operators of E-4 rank. Also gained will be one recovery mechanic, one turret mechanic and two track vehicle mechanics. Dropped will be the security section of 11 men.

The total men in the new unit when at full strength will be 37 instead of the 103 in the old unit. Priority strength will be 42, but is subject to change.

A paper change moves the mess and supply section to the headquarters battalion, but they will remain in Company C for pay and administration.

The 3rd Med. Tk. Bn., of which the local unit is a part will lose the units at Crockett and Huntsville and will gain the former company I of the 36th Division at Temple. This company was formerly an infantry company.

The local unit will help train the Temple unit. Sunday 1st Lt. Donald Mitcham and Sgt. Daniel Mitcham will go to Temple to instruct the unit in armor communications.

The change will not cost any city its unit nor will any men be discharged. The last reorganization of the Guard was in 1958 when the local unit was changed from an anti-aircraft battery to a tank unit.

Rosebud, good neighbor city to the north, this week took a shelling in a Time Magazine story about "Communities": The Train Doesn't Stop Anymore.

The story is about what is happening to one - economy communities, primarily in the 1,500 and under category; no one likes to focus attention on a trend that is almost beyond control of those suffering it, but small-town America really is taking its lumps with the shifts to metropolitan develop-

Draft Board Sends

10 For Physical

The Milam County Draft Board reported ten men went to Dallas Wednesday, one for induction and nine for physical examination.

We know that sincere efforts have been made and are presently underway in Rosebud to alter the picture Time describes, in part, in its story. But the shift of agriculture is doing terrible damage to once peaceful, small-town USA. A lot of these smaller communities have taken the shift lying down; Rosebud has tried not to ignore it.

Cameron, a community of 5,640 people got some good advice to modernize from a Dallas banker - economist four years ago. And that advice is being heeded.

Time points out that smaller communities are in a difficult position to pull themselves up by their own bootstraps. The reality of size has its limitations.

Another neighboring town, Rockdale, was about 2,300 in the 1950 census, but was up to 4,400 plus in 1960 with the advent of Alcoa. This could have been counted a miracle, not just for Rockdale or Milam County, but for much of Central Texas as well.

There is natural inclination to renounce the realities of needed change to sustain a more leisurely life. But when the problems become so large, it becomes time to materialize a new base of operations.

Rosebud has people who can meet this challenge and who have foresight enough to adapt. We believe they will continue to build anew.

And we will agree with Time's summation: "But for many, life there (in small towns) had its compensations - countryside with-in walking distance, acquaintances rather than hurrying strangers on the streets, and a serenity that city dwellers cannot even imagine."

Suggestions On Local Crops

By J. D. Moore
Milam County Agent

Farmers, Seed and Fertilizer Dealers, met this week and discussed plans for 1963. Ben Spears, Agronomist from the Extension Service at A & M College, discussed grain sorghum varieties and cautioned farmers about planting late maturing varieties. Spears also emphasized the need for considering good cultural farming practices, paying special attention to adding crop residue to the soil through crop rotation to increase the organic matter and increase the water holding capacity of the soil.

Soil tests were recommended to determine the proper soil fertility level. Spears expressed an opinion that if these things were done, many of the recommended seed varieties would perform satisfactorily.

FERTILIZER TESTS

Plans were made for setting up fewer, but better fertilizer test with average type farmers through the cooperation of local fertilizer

Fire Damage Is High In Winter In Central Texas

COLLEGE STATION — The fire danger potential in Central Texas is very high during the winter and early spring months warns D. W. Fate, District Forester of the Texas Forest Service.

During the month of January alone, Fate reports that 56 forest and grass fires burned over an estimated 6,163 acres of land in the Texas Forest Service District No. 7 (post oak area). These fires caused an estimated $11,384 in damage to improvements. A Milam County resident was seriously burned while protecting his home from a raging wildfire.

Fate explained that the grass and weeds are very dry and highly flammable at this time of the year. He said, "When the vegetation is in this cured condition a dry north wind can create a hazardous fire situation within a few hours after a rain."

The largest number of wildfires are caused by careless burning of trash, brush, fields and other debris. By following a few simple rules, most of the destructive wildfires can be prevented. First, provide a safe trash burner for use around rural homes. Plans for such a trash burner can be obtained from the County Agent or from the Texas Forest Service. Secondly always establish adequate fire breaks around fields and brush piles before any burning is done. Next burn trash or debris only when the wind and fire danger is low.

BIG CAT — P. L. Bergum of Ben Arnold holds up the 20 pound bob cat he killed when it ran in front of his automobile recently. Mr. Bergum said the cat was crossing in front of him at an easy pace when he hit him just south of Ben Arnold. Game Warden D. E. Davis told the Herald that the cat was a little bigger than average around here. He said that average runs around 15-18 pounds. The Record for Texas is 35 pounds.

Non - Screwworm Samples Increase

MISSION — An increasing percentage of specimens being received at the Southwest Screwworm Eradication Program's laboratory are being identified as "non-screwworm" and as the program continues the ratio of non - screwworms to screwworms should continue to rise. Faithfulness on the part of farmers and ranchers in sending in samples will help hasten the arrival of that day when screwworms will be eradicated in the Southwest.

Many of the samples submitted by livestock producers have been identified as wool maggots or black blow fly maggots. These and several other larvae are similar in appearance and characteristics to the screwworm and are often found in the same wound, but do not cause the serious damage done by the screwworms. The non - screwworm larvae have a tendency to stay around the edge of the wound, feeding on dead tissue, whereas the true screwworm larvae feed on live tissue.

Since a case of screwworms in a wound may later be infested with other maggots, program officials have some words of advice about collecting samples. They suggest at least ten or more maggots—getting them from the center of the wound and as deep within the wound as possible. Also, if there is more than one size of larvae in the wounds, this might represent two or more infestations instead of one. Some of each size should be collected.

Most important, however officials say, is to collect and send samples to county agents or directly to the laboratory at Box 969, Mission. The existence and location of native screwworms can only be determined by samples. This information is considered in planning the release of sexually sterile screwworm flies now being reared at Mission.

Jungmann, Hollas Win 4-H Awards

Two Milam County 4-H boys were winners in the 1962 Texas 4-H Poultry Awards Program. Larry Jungmann, Rt. 2, Buckholts and Leon Hollas, Rt. 4, Cameron were the winners.

These members were singled out for this special recognition because of the outstanding manner in which they conducted their 4-H Poultry projects.

USDA SURVEY

U. S. Department of Agriculture surveys indicate that grasshopper infestations in Texas will be less in 1963. Infestations were found only 67,120 acres in the 1962 survey as compared with 377,390 acres in 1961.

A Gopher Control Demonstration is set for 9:30 a. m. February 22 at the Clyde Hensley farm in the Hoyt Community.

To get to Hensley's place, turn left across the railroad track past the Hoyt Switch. Hensley's place is the second house on the left on the gravel road.

The public is invited. Those with gopher problems should attend.

Milam ASCS Report

The sign-up for the 1963 feed grain program now is under way in the ASCS County Office, according to Alva E. Sanders, office manager of the Milam County Agricultural, Stabilization, and Conservation Service. The sign-up period started February 1 and will continue through March 22.

In general, provisions follow those for 1961 and 1962 crops by giving feed grain producers an opportunity to participate in the program by reducing acreages at least 20 percent and devoting them to an approved conserving use. By participating they will receive diversion payments and price - support loan program.

One important change from programs for previous years, Sanders explained, is the price - support payment which participating farmers will receive on the normal production of the acres planted to the feed grains in 1963. The payments have been set at 18 cents per bushel on corn, 16 cents per bushel on grain sorghum and 14 cents per bushel on barley. Unlike the regular price - support loan, the rates for the price - support payments will be the same throughout the country; they will not vary by counties.

Also, this year, price - support loans will be available to program participants on the entire crop produced on the 1963 feed grain acreage (in 1962 the loan was restricted to the normal production of such acreage.)

From now on, Sanders believes, county office personnel will be increasingly busy explaining the program to farmers and helping them fill out the necessary forms indicating their "intention to participate" in the 1963 feed grain program. He urges interested growers to visit the office soon, and thus avoid undue delays.

Last Call For Heroism Award

COLLEGE STATION — Time is running out for making nominations for the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council's Rural Heroism Award. Deadline is March 1, 1963.

The award, an engraved plaque, will be presented to the winner during the annual meeting of the Texas Safety Association.

The Council points out that acts of bravery occur in many Texas counties each year which are deserving nominations for the award. Nominations are limited to persons who live in rural areas or communities of 2,500 population or less.

The act of bravery performed might have been the removal of a person from a burning building, rescuing someone in danger of drowning, rescue work carried out in connection with storms, floods, explosions or traffic accident. A life may have been risked to save another. This hero might be your neighbor. Give him the recognition he deserves, urges the Council.

Rev. Herring, Rogers Minister, To Be On Japanese Crusade in March

ROGERS — The Rev. Clyde Lee Herring, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Rogers has been chosen as one of the 145 Baptist ministers of Texas to be sent on the Japanese Crusade in March, 1963.

His church has voted him permission to be gone for the crusade, which will be about one month. One Sunday has been set aside for financial assistance in the Crusade. The 145 ministers along with music specialists and lay workers will fly to the Far East for this month long series of preaching all across Japan, the Philippines and other areas there.

The movement is being sponsored by the Japan Baptist Convention, the Baptist General Convention of Texas, and the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board.

As expressed by Dr. T. A. Patterson, Executive Secretary of the General Baptist Convention of Texas, "Please understand that this is not just a tour it is a tremendous effort to win souls to Christ." Baptist leaders say this is perhaps the greatest evangelistic effort in the history of Christian missions, in a period of some five weeks the hope is that every person in Japan will have an opportunity to hear the gospel. The message will also be on radio all over Asia, including parts of Russia.

The Work will begin with crusades in the major metropolitan areas in which Dr. Billy Graham will participate and will follow with campaigns in possibly 145 cities.

Mr. Herring will be with the group that goes first to the Philippines, around March 26, will work there some two or perhaps three weeks, then on to Japan to join the larger group. The trip back to Japan will probably be through Hong Kong, Taiwan and Okinawa to inspect mission posts and help with the work there. The Japanese people are calling this crusade "The Baptist New Life Movement."

While Mr. Herring is absent from the Rogers church, Dr. Arthur K. Tyson, President of Mary Hardin - Baylor College in Belton will occupy the pulpit.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Joseph Gallant

Mueck-Gallant Vows Read In Austin

St. Mary's Cathedral was the scene of the January 12 wedding of Marie Mueck and Raymond Joseph Gallant. The Rev. Harold G. Zink, D. S. C. read the nuptial mass.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis W. Mueck of Cameron, the bride is a graduate of Yoe High School in Cameron and Durham's Business College in Austin. She is a secretary in the Texas Highway Department.

Mr. Gallant, stationed with the U. S. Army, in El Roy, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Armand J. Gallant of Hanover, Mass. He is a graduate of Weymouth (Mass.) High School and attended Wentworth Institute in Boston.

Given in marriage by her brother, Lawrence Mueck, the bride wore a traditional gown designed with a chantilly lace bodice accented with iridescents and a bouffant skirt of French illusion with an overskirt of chantilly lace and side panels of tulle ruffles in a bustle effect over taffeta. Her shoulder length veil of French illusion was held by a queen's crown of pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white duchess roses centered with an orchid.

Miss Dorothy Jurek of Gonzales was maid of honor. She wore a dress of light blue brocade and carried a matching blue mum corsage atop a white lace muff. Bernard Mueck, of Cameron, brother of the bride, was best man.

After a reception at the North Austin Lion's Club, the couple left on a wedding trip to Monterey, Mexico. They will be at home at 3410 Speedway, Austin.

blamed for arousing settlers' opposition to the company's dictatorial land policies, then for attempting to amend legislation correcting the abuses.

Now married, Reagan campaigned for the Democratic Party against the "Know Nothings", whose discriminatory religious and political philosophy clashed with his. The Democrats won and Reagan, not a candidate, but now a spokesman, returned to judicial duties.

These activities gained him election to the U. S. Congress from the East Texas district.

Procter warms his narrative in describing this Texas frontier - man's bewilderment at the turbulence of the Washington of 1857. Reagan relished reason and urged compromise of the disparity of views of North and South. But this view could not salvage a Union doomed to dismemberment by the cut of abolition and the counter of a cotton - slave economy.

With the South headed for secession in 1860, with Lincoln elected president and John Brown's raid history, Reagan came back to Texas, committed to the Southern cause.

A friend of Jefferson Davis, Reagan went to Montgomery, Alabama, where he was named to the Confederacy's cabinet as postmaster - general. He was to direct postal services to a Southland sprawling from Texas to Virginia, an assignment both unromantic and virtually impossible.

Then came the gradual collapse of a blockaded South, dissolution and arrest of Davis' cabinet and their imprisonment in Union forts. But in months rather than years, Reagan was released from his Boston prison. He came back to a Texas rumbling with radical Republicanism.

He returned a sorrowful man. His second wife died during the war, a victim of a fall. His letter espousing a moderate view toward the North, written during his imprisonment, was widely published and bitterly resented.

Reagan's views regained favor in the stress of conservative efforts to oust carpet - bag Texas government of the 1870's. In campaigns that led to an armed showdown on Austin's Capitol Hill, his quixotic devotion to moderation prevailed.

It also brought his return to Congress in 1875, where he was to launch his major contest with the railroads. Amid several vacillating House commerce committees, against polished deities of railroad spokesmen, he was a one-man arbiter for legislation finally passed after 12 years.

In frontier Texas he was a hero, a plaudit which won his election to the Senate. But he duly resigned the Senatorial post to head Texas' Railroad Commission, a post he held into his "twilight years." And in 1905, the "Old Roman" contracted pneumonia and died, heralded in his lifetime as a prophet who, Dr. Procter concludes, "Was not without honor."

This biography starts slowly, but commands interest as Procter documents Reagan's sense of purpose and idealism.

Excoriated often by press, public, and private interests, Reagan the man comes through, though the author tends to idealize the statesman's every purpose. But Reagan is soundly proved a statesman.

Dr. Procter's assessment is timely in a day of political dedication to staying in office, in a time when both public and its spokesmen demand too little of themselves.

We recommend this biography recently added to the shelves of Cameron Library. It provides insights into a great man caught up in an age of vast Texas development, not unlike a new kind of development in this century.

Yoe - Yoes Win District

8th Graders Take Title With Win Over Caldwell

The Yoe - Yoes took a 37-32 win over the Caldwell 8th graders to take the 8th grade district title.

The Yoe - Yoes took an early lead and were able to hold it thru the game. Caldwell came up to tie the game only once. That moment came in the second quarter with 4½ minutes to play.

But the hustling Yoe - Yoes came back as Jackie McKinney sank a couple of free throws, Don Mitchell Well's Strong hit him causing him to miss. He sank another free throw to put the Yoe - Yoes ahead and stay that way.

Mitchell tied for the high point honors with Leo Michalka as both scored 11 points. Michalka, a top scorer, had trouble finding the range as he failed to hit a field goal the first half.

But he cut lose in the second half. He is a very quick mover and stole the ball from the little Hornets as they brought the ball down court.

The dressing room after the game was one of happiness as the Yoe-Yoes enjoyed the victory and the district title.

Coach Joe Davis termed the crew as one of the scrappiest he had seen and said they should become real time ball players.

Rogers Trounces

Granger For

Double Wins

The Rogers boys and girls basketball teams each took a victory over the Granger Lions in District 23-A play last week.

Rogers boys jumped off to a first quarter lead and maintained the lead thru the game. They led at the halftime 25-22.

Chandler Sisco was the outstanding scorer as he couldn't be stopped. He sank 11 field goals and five free shots for 27 points. Steve Castillo sank 13 points for the winners.

The boys now have a 3-5 lead in the district play.

The girls kept in their deadlock with Acadamy for the title in their race. Both teams have a 7-1 record. Shirley Luksa had 21 points with 13 of these coming on free shots. Glenda Mayfield was second with 10 points.

Nancy Pope was high for the losers with 28 points.

Rogers had to use a big fourth quarter to come from behind to drop the Granger girls in the close ball game. Rogers led 12-9 at the end of the first period, 20-19 at the half and Granger took over in the third quarter as they led 31-30.

7th Graders Lose

Contest To A&M

A strong A & M Cons. defense stopped the 7th graders of Cameron 22-19. The loss eliminated the 7th graders from the district title.

Wayne Kirk led the 7th graders with seven points. He sank three field goals. John McLerran was second with five.

Ruben Trevino had four and Al Jeff had three.

A & M jumped off to a 6-3 lead in the first quarter and held it throughout the game. They led 11-9 at the half.

A&M Cons. Takes

Win Over Yoemen

In Dist. 19AA Game

The A & M Consolidated Tigers took a 25 point victory over the Cameron Yoemen Friday night in College Station. The score ended 73-45.

Billy Davenport was tops for the Yoemen as he sank seven free throws and three field goals for 13 points. MerLn Lester was second with 11 points. Ronnie McWilliams had 8.

Paul Mamaliga was the leader for the winners as he scored 15 points. One point behind him was Ricky Owen.

The Yoemen stayed fairly close the first quarter but trailed by four points at the end. Consolidated spurred ahead as they took a 37-25 half time lead.

YOE - YOES

LOSE CLOSE

DISTRICT GAME

The Yoe - Yoes were cold as they hit only 8 points in the first half in crucial game they lost to A & M Consolidated 8th graders. The score ended 33-29 as the Yoe-Yoes started to move back.

But their last quarter move fell short as they came to within two points of the Consolidated five. Consolidated scored in the final seconds to increase the lead to four points.

The loss put the Yoe - Yoes in the second place position but a win over Caldwell will give them the title.

Leo Michalka, who has been a consistent scorer for the team was high again as he hit 16 points. This included five field goals the last half.

Bill Goeke was second with 8 points. But the difference was A & M's ability to stop the Yoe-Yoe guards, Don Mitchell and Jackie McKinney and center Don Manley with only five points between them.

The Yoe - Yoes trailed 19-8 in the half.

The National Guard's benefit dance for the Little League Program reminds us that spring is here and baseball season will start in a few weeks.

Cameron has developed a fine Little League Program over the last few years and it will take about $1200 - $1500 to get it going this year.

Bassel Wilson, president of the Association, said there will be an organizational meeting in March and play will start in early June.

Hornets Drop Yoe

The Caldwell Hornets took a 71-29 over the Yoemen Tuesday night in Caldwell to close the basketball season for both teams.

The Yoemen stayed fairly close the first quarter but then the Hornets hit seven field goals in a row to let the Yoemen behind.

Quick Jinnie Lancic was the big man as he scored 27 points to lead the Hornets. Several of these came as he stole passes and the ball from the Yoemen.

Merlin Lester scored eleven points for the Yoemen in the first half and then added one more for a total of twelve to lead the Yoemen. Billy Don Davenport was next with 8 points. Judson Smith had 5.

The Hornets led 18-13 at the end of the first period, 40-21 at the half and 51-24 in the third as they used a full court press for a few minutes

The Cameron Women that entered the State Bowling Tournament at Waco have a reason to be proud. They entered 15 teams in the tournament for one of the highest percents in the state. Temple has 17 teams, Taylor only 6 and Bryan only 15.

Ag Success Suggests New Roles

Milam County increased production in cotton during 1962 on fewer acres and planted about 55,000 acres more in grain sorghum and corn than in 1959, the last agriculture census. These facts gave impetus to enthusiasm on the results of Milam's 1962 agriculture crops compared to the previous year.

It was a better year generally than in the past several: 15,753 bales of cotton (still incomplete) compared to 13,519 last year, 66,361 acres of grain compared to a 1959 total of 40,714, 50,083 acres of corn compared to a 1959 total of 31,999.

Favorable weather conditions made a major difference. The winds and rains of Hurricane Carla hurt 1961 cotton. Intermittent rains damaged the 1961 grain crops.

It was also a good year for livestock and the growing Milam dairy industry. Favorable grazing conditions were sustained through most of the year.

These factors boosted the $9 million Milam agriculture industry to a good year, beyond the $9.18 million total of the 1959 ag census year.

It is likely that more than good weather helped these crops. It was likely that good management and additional use of fertilizer added to the production.

This is important information, information that shows the strength of Milam agriculture. And it is heartening to see these increases in the light of low income per farm published in connection with the Blackland Income Growth program of early 1962.

Perhaps the focus of the need for agricultural improvements had a bearing on the actual improvements, the natural elements withstanding. At least the need for modern agriculture management was developed.

This success in Milam agriculture can well be turned to continued improvements in Cameron and other Milam towns. As the strict requirements for success in agriculture increase many small farm units will continue to be caught in the cost squeeze.

Attention to the needs of employing these people off the farm, in some kind of industrial payroll, can serve the interests of agriculture, business and industry. It definitely has bearing on the growth and improvement of Milam communities.

This farm labor force is at present Milam's work force. They can continue to be residents of Milam County, reside in their traditional homes if they have employment.

The successful leadership of both town and country can be applied to keeping them gainfully employed residents of Milam County.

Lawyers Wonder About Resolution

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — Lawyers are wondering if the Texas Senate really passed a constitutional amendment resolution proposing that the voters give women equal rights.

Records show that this resolution passed the Senate 26-5. But it also shows that the Senate voted down an amendment which would have made it clear that the purpose of the proposal was to repeal all laws on the statute books which treat women differently from men.

When courts interpret the laws and the constitution, legislative intent is what they must determine. Records now show that legislative intent of the Senate was not to repeal all the discriminatory laws about women.

This proposal, by Sen. William T. Moore of Bryan, has been defeated in the Senate many times before.

It now goes to the House of Representatives, which has passed it many times before.

TEXAS SELLS ITSELF
Legislators' proposals to add such slogans as "Lone Star State" and "Texas Has Everything" to license plates haven't found favor with De Witt Greer, chief engineer for the State Highway Department.

"T-E-X-A-S" is the only slogan this state needs," Greer told the House Appropriations Committee. He added that more writing on car tags just means additional expense.

"All law enforcement officers will tell you," Greer explained, "that the readability of the rest of the plate is lessened if you crowd in slogans."

PARKS — HIGHWAY TIE IN
Greer testified before the same committee during hearings on a bill by Rep. David Haines of Bryan to put state parks under the Highway Commission's jurisdiction.

Greer made it clear that his commission is not seeking an extra job. But he stated, "If you gave us the parks to administer, we would do an outstanding job of it."

Haines' proposal is an alternative to Gov. John Connally's suggestion that the Parks Board be combined with the Game and Fish Commission.

Rep. Haines said he thought Greer's agency could and should take over the parks, and make each highway district responsible for the parks in its district.

"If the parks were improved," Haines stated, "it would increase highway travel which would increase gas consumption. And that would increase the gas taxes to the highway commission, so they would have a high stake in doing a good job."

DEATH OF POLL TAX?
If the rest of the Senate follows like the Senate committee on constitutional amendments, the poll tax may be on its way to extinction.

Committee gave a nine-to-two approval of Laredo Sen. Abraham Kazen's bill to submit to the people a constitutional amendment that would kill the poll tax as of February 1, 1965.

The two "no" votes in committee came from Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas and Sen. Galloway Calhoun Jr. of Tyler.

"Ayes" came from Sens. Kazen, Charles Herring of Austin, Roy Harrington of Port Arthur, Don Keenard of Fort Worth, Culp Krueger of El Campo, Walter Richter of Gonzales, Aaron Schwartz of Galveston, Franklin Spears of San Antonio and Jack Strong of Longview.

If Kazen's bill passes the full legislature, voters would make the final decision in the 1964 general election. So far, every state that has voted on the federal constitutional amendment to do away with poll taxes, except Mississippi, has voted to drop it.

'COLOR — BLIND' TAX
Rep. Howard Green of Fort Worth introduced a bill to make the poll tax "color blind."

Green called the race notation on voter registration forms useless and outmoded. Furthermore, "It is an additional bar to full citizenship."

He believes his bill will pass with little opposition, but there are many who consider the race notation a necessary aid to voter identification.

ANTI - POLLUTION BILL

A bill to give a county health officer the power to enter and check business establishments and manufacturing plants "to discover threat to the public health" from air or water pollution was revived by Rep. Bob Eckhardt of Houston. He fails to get it passed in previous sessions.

Governor Connally is supporting the new bill.

ATTORNEY GENERAL DONATIONS OPPOSED

Contributions from oil companies to finance investigations by the attorney general to see if competitor's oil wells are slanted would be outlawed under a bill introduced by Rep. Ben Barnes of Delton.

Nearly $300,000 in contributions from major — and some minor — oil companies was used by former Atty. Gen. Will Wilson to make such surveys in East Texas.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr told Representative Barnes that the $30,000 recently appropriated by the legislature will be sufficient for his investigations.

So Barnes filed a proposal which would make it illegal for the attorney general to accept money from anyone to investigate or prosecute anything.

PARENTAL PAY PLAN

Fifty per cent of a man's weekly wages could be attached to pay child support if Tyler Rep. Ben Jarvis' bill becomes a constitutional amendment.

COUNTY UNIT CHANGE PROPOSED

Rep. George T. Hinson of Mineola thinks it's time someone started doing something about "modernizing county government." So he has introduced a bill to require county commissioners to be elected by the county at large.

Each county precinct would have to put up resident candidates, which, Hinson explained, would assure continued local representation through pooled knowledge of each precinct's problems, and prevent the largest community from filling a commissioners court with its own residents.

Hinson believes his county — at large election plan would get commissioners from all precincts to work at all times for the best interests of the entire county.

If his bill becomes law, Hinson sees it as a forerunner to eventual, economical pooling of the resources — capital, road machinery, manpower and equipment — of all a county's precincts into one central unit.

DO 'EYES' HAVE IT?

A proposal by Rep. Bill Walker of Cleveland that the state song be changed from "Texas, Our Texas" to "The Eyes of Texas" has been referred to a study subcommittee which includes on Texas ex-

Subcommittee chairman Gene Hendryx of Alpine is a Sul Ross graduate. One member, Rep. Howard Green of Fort Worth, finished at T. C. U. and the third member is an ex - Aggie — Rep. Richard C. Slack of Pecos.

Some interested legislators have suggested that the "Eyes of Texas" might be made more palatable if the opening bars of the "Aggie War Hymn" were added. But a state association of music clubs has indicated that the Aggies aren't the only ones opposed to a change of the state anthem.

A&M DIRECTORS NAMED

An ex - Aggie a "Harvard man" and a graduate of Case Institute of Technology were named by Governor Connally to six-year terms on Texas A & M College's board of directors.

L. F. (Pete) Peterson of Fort Worth, recently named president of A & M's Former Students Association, Gardner Symonds, head of Tennessee Gas Transmission Company of Houston, who received a master's degree from Harvard and Case graduate Dr. A. P. Beutel, director of Dow Chemical Company, are Connally's nominations.

Senate will vote on seven other college board appointments this week. But the date it will consider the A & M appointments has not been set.

BEACH BEHAVIOR

"We have a terrible situation in regard to littering on Padre Island," says Nueces County Judge Noah Kennedy.

Kennedy and two other Corpus Christi officials appeared before a House committee to speak in favor of a bill by Rep. James Lattimore of Corpus Christi which would allow Gulf Coast counties to regulate speeding and littering on public beaches.

THE OLD PHILOSOPHER

Philosopher Finds Something To Worry About In Population Figures For World

Dear editor:

I know people are worried about Cuba, Canada, DeGaulle, Russia, China, Congress, etc., but I have run across a problem that worries me more than all these put together.

According to an article I read last night in snatches during television commercials and station breaks, the population of the world will double in the next 40 years. It took from the start of time to 1830 to reach one billion. But it took only 100 years to reach two billion in 1930, and only 30 years to reach three billion, which is what it is now, assuming the count was accurate in the African and Australian brush country and the Siberian prison camps. In other words the world's population is like the national debt. The bigger it is, the bigger it gets.

Consequently, in a few more years, the world's population will double again, and we'll have six billion people on earth. There's no way of estimating the national debt at that time, but I have confidence it will keep pace.

What worries me about this is another set of statistics. In 1890, if a farmer supported himself, he was considered doing his job satisfactorily. But in 1900, with more people moving to town, he was supporting himself and four city people. By 1963, the thing had got all out of hand and he was raising enough for himself and 23 people in town. Furthermore, as the population increases, the number of farmers decreases, and it doesn't take a mathematical wizzard to see what a burden this puts on us farmers.

As I calculate it, in 40 more years, if the trends continue, one farmer will have to produce enough for 46 people in town.

Now you may think what's worrying me about this is that I'll have to work twice as hard to carry my end of the load.

You're wrong. What's worrying me is how those 46 people are going to get by on half of what they're getting now.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

The Child's World Is As Far As She Can See

A child's outlook upon the world comes through a child's eyes and a child's mind. Of necessity this outlook changes as he or she grows into adulthood. There are two powers however, with which every child is endowed, these being love and faith. If returned they provide the greatest blessing life has to offer. All too often these blessings are replaced with fear and apprehension. Love and faith is the only power greater than these. Wisdom, so much to be desired, cannot take their place.

How then may we retain this spirit of love and faith, or, once we have lost it, how may it be regained? By prayer to Him who did not create within us a spirit of fear, and by holding fellowship with those who possess an abiding faith. The Church of our choice provides these contacts of prayer and association with those of strong faith, and as an institution of God it functions best when many attend. Use, and seek its benefits.

DAIRY OPERATION

About 50 percent of the cost of operating a dairy is feeding the herd and the dairyman who plans to cut costs and increase profits in 1963 should consider producing more of the needed feed, says Curtis Richardson, extension area dairy specialist. Pasture is the cheapest source of feed for the dairy herd and temporary pastures are of utmost importance. Plan them now, says the specialist, and be ready when planting time rolls around.

Which Would You Rather Have?

ROOF "S" GUARANTEED BY AN OUT OF TOWN CONCERN FOR 25 YEARS

OR A ROOF GUARANTEED IN WRITING FOR 15 YEARS BY YOUR LOCAL LUMBER DEALER

At 1/4 The Price

You could put on 4 roofs with a total of 60 years guarantees at the same price the out-of-town man has offered you one roof. Suppose ten years from now you want to rebuild . . . or change color . . . or add to your home. Look at the big investment you have already made. If you had used our roof you would still have 3-4s of the money in your pocket.

And if anything should happen to your roof during the guarantee period you know where to find your lumber dealer but where is the out-of-town? Gone to greener pastures perhaps.

Your home improvements can be financed by the local Banks or Title 1 FHA loans with nothing down and up to five years to repay.
